

MATHILDE'S LOVE CRAFT THREATENS TO HIT BREAKERS

Parents are in Court Battle Over Daugh- ter's Guardianship

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—Mathilde McCormick came home from New York today to take sides with her father in what has threatened to grow into a court battle over her marriage to Max Oser, Swiss riding master.

Miss McCormick tonight was planning to appear in probate court tomorrow and tell Judge Hornet that she wants her father, Harold F. McCormick, millionaire head of the International Harvester company to be her guardian.

Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick who recently divorced Mr. McCormick on grounds of desertion, has obtained a court order re-opening the proceedings which were thought to have made Mr. McCormick Mathilde's guardian.

At the time of the divorce Mathilde chose to stay with her father and the guardianship proceedings were thought to be to clear away a legal obstacle to her marriage to Oser.

Under the Swiss law, it was explained the consent of both parents or the legal guardian is necessary to the marriage of a minor. Mrs. McCormick was said to be unalterably opposed to the marriage while Mr. McCormick was said to favor it as a last resort if it proved absolutely essential to his daughter's happiness.

The objections of both were said to center in the disparity of ages between Oser, who was said to be at least 45 years old and Mathilde, who is just 17.

Brought Up in Zurich.
Mathilde was brought up by her mother in a hotel in Zurich, Switzerland, receiving only occasional visits from her father. Last year Mrs. McCormick returned alone to Chicago leaving Mathilde in Zurich with a maid and governess.

Mathilde did not come to her mother had obtained a divorce and she then joined her father, her engagement becoming known shortly afterwards. At the direction of her father she was entertained in New York, Chicago and Hot Springs, but, according to friends of the family took but little interest in society.

Then, according to family friends, having finally decided that the marriage was essential to his daughter's happiness, Mr. McCormick took the final step toward clearing away all legal barriers by seeking to have himself named his daughter's guardian so that she could marry with his consent alone. The first steps had hardly been taken when Mathilde in New York announced her readiness to sail for Europe.

Her plans were cancelled at the last moment however, when she received word that her mother had had the guardianship proceedings reopened on the grounds that she had not been given legal notice. Mathilde then rushed back from New York and into her father's arms.

POLICE BELIEVE WILL LINK SHEA WITH AUTO RING

Allege Labor Leader is Head of Nationwide Theft Ring

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—Operations of an alleged nationwide automobile theft ring with headquarters in Chicago and of which "Con" Shea, labor leader now under indictment for police murders following labor bombings is said by the police to be the head, were revealed by the authorities today following the return from St. Louis of officers with William Smith.

Smith was seized in St. Louis two weeks ago as a field agent of the theft ring and unsuccessfully fought extradition.

Assistant State's Attorney Hodges also said today that he would question Smith in connection with recent bombings and the murder of two policemen for which Shea, "Big Tim" Murphy, Fred Mader and several others are now under indictment.

Hodges said Smith would be questioned particularly regarding the dynamiting of laundries.

According to the police the operations of the alleged automobile theft ring extended into cities of the east and south and resulted in the theft and disposal of over 300 cars valued at about $500,000. John Rogers, garage owner and Claude Buller, seized yesterday with an automobile alleged to have been stolen are also being held in connection with the case.

Thomas Carey who scheduled $300,000 worth of property to obtain the release from jail of Mader and Murphy on condition that they withdraw from all activities in connection with the Chicago Building Trades Council said today that union labor here will be investigated in public by a committee of twenty representative citizens and officials.

The committee Mr. Carey said, will consist of some city aldermen, bankers, judges, and members of the clergy. He also said that it would include persons "not friendly to union labor."

ACTUAL CONFLICT BETWEEN CLANS IS NEAR IN IRELAND

Military of Two Fac- tions Face Each Other at Border

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, May 30.—Another day has passed without announcement of progress towards avoiding what the colonial secretary, Winston Spencer Churchill speaking in the house of commons termed one of the recurrent crises in the Irish situation while from the Ulster borderland reports indicate that the situation is rapidly passing from one of an approaching crisis to an actual conflict with the northern and southern military engaged across the border.

A more optimistic feeling prevailed in official circles late in the afternoon however, and the difficulties of the negotiations are expected to be surmounted. The morning cabinet meeting was preceded by a long conversation between Premier Lloyd George, Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins, which it was said ended satisfactorily. But it was not followed by the government's expected statement in the house in the afternoon. Mr. Churchill said he would deal with the situation tomorrow morning. In the house of Lords, Lord Birkenhead quieted discussion on Lord Salisbury's Irish motion by explaining that a full and candid explanation of the government view of the situation would be presented.

It is expected that the Irish conference will continue during the next two days, but Mr. Griffith and Mr. Collins will return to Dublin in time for the adjourned session of the Dail Eireann on June 2, while Mr. Lloyd George plans to take a holiday at Criccieth, his departure being arranged for Thursday morning.

In the meantime increased political activity for the forthcoming elections is evident.

SANTA FE MAKES ARRANGEMENTS TO REDUCE ITS RATES

Will Make Rates to Accord with Ruling of Commission

(By The Associated Press)
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 30.—That the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company will proceed at once to arrange to reduce freight rates as prescribed by the interstate commerce commission effective July 1, was the statement contained in a special dispatch from Edward J. Dammers, vice president of the system to the Albuquerque Morning Journal today. His message said:

"We will make the same application to the state rates as we make to interstate rates, which includes the Santa Fe Lines in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arizona, Nevada and California. Every precaution will be taken to avoid delay in the preparation of the tariffs for filing and in this we feel sure that we will have the hearty cooperation of the state commissions."

While we opposed reduction of rates on the ground that the carriers needed the larger returns to meet the country's transportation needs we hope the decision will remove the uncertainties of a rate change which have had a retarding influence on most business and on manufacturing concerns in particular."

LEVEE CAVES IN NEAR ALGIERS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, May 30.—Men and material were rushed tonight to a point on the Mississippi river near Stanton plantation on the west bank of the river nine miles below Algiers, where the outer bank of the stream and a portion of the levee caved in for 200 feet late today, according to telephone messages received by the Orleans levy board headquarters here.

The slough occurred at the exact spot where about 1,500 feet of the batture gave away last week. A force has been working since then constructing a crib around the weak place.

Levee board officials expressed the opinion that with the river at its present stage over three feet lower than the record established last month that a break at that point would not do serious damage. They believe, however, that the levee will hold.

TWELVE BALLOONS WILL START FROM MILWAUKEE TODAY

Two Represent U. S. Navy and Are Filled With Helium

(By The Associated Press)
MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 30.—The twelve candidates for honors in the national balloon race starting tomorrow were filled tonight with thousands of feet of gas and late in the afternoon they will be released for their perilous flight into uncharted areas of the upper air with their destination dependent entirely upon the whims of the wind. Indications tonight were that the big bags would start on their way with winds basically from the west with the prospects of being carried into southeastern Canada or northeastern United States.

Attracting the most interest are the two bags which will fly for the United States navy. These bags will not be eligible for place honors because they will be inflated with helium. Besides the experiment with helium one of the navy balloons will carry a secret radio outfit recently developed and from which remarkable results are expected.

The first balloon to go up will be that of Roy Donaldson of Springfield, Ill., and the others will follow at brief intervals. Donaldson's balloon is the smallest in the race, being of only 5,000 feet capacity.

The order of ascension, following Donaldson is as follows:

Major Oscar Westover, Washington, capacity 80,000 cubic feet.
Ralph Upson, Detroit, capacity 65,000 cubic feet.
Captain John Berry, St. Louis, capacity 78,000 cubic feet.

CRAFTS AFFECTED BY WAGE CUT MAY VOTE TO WALK OUT

Maintenance of Way and Shop Laborers to Vote on Strike

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., May 30.—The executive council of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers this afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution instructing E. F. Grabel, the president, to send out strike ballots to all members of the organization and all non-union workers in the crafts affected by the wage cut ordered by the United States railroad labor board Sunday.

President Grabel announced the ballots would be sent out immediately and that if the workers decided to strike in protest against the cut, the walkout would be effective about July 5. He estimated 478,000 members of the union and about 70,000 non-union workers would be asked to vote on the matter, virtually every railroad in the country, with the exception of short lines and electric roads, being affected.

The resolution adopted by the executive council which is composed of the officers of the union specified the ballots should ask whether or not the workers were willing to accept the cut and declared if they were the union will use the full economic powers of the organization to resist the reduction of wages ordered by the labor board.

President Grabel said afterward he expected the returns would be in by July 1, explaining that in case of a strike vote he was empowered to call the men out, he fived July 5 as the tentative date by which arrangements could be completed to put the strike into effect.

Expects Others to Follow.
Mr. Grabel expressed the belief that other railroad brotherhoods also would conduct strike referendums soon and declared that if the others voted to strike the maintenance of way men would join them if the members of his organization favored such action. The brotherhood's financial condition is the best it ever has been and sufficient funds are available to conduct a strike the president said. A strike of the brotherhood would, according to the president affect all mechanics, maintenance of way men, including section hands and foremen, trackmen, bridge builders, painters, coal chute men, cinder pit men and carpenters on all of the chief railroads of the country.

Mr. Grabel said he based his belief that other unions might take a strike vote on the attitude shown at the recent meeting in Chicago of representatives of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor at which he said sentiment favored a strike vote in the event of wage reductions.

Mr. Grabel declared all the brotherhood officials believed the wage reductions "were unwarranted and unfair at this time asserting the labor board's ruling would reduce wages of the workers on an average of 13.2 percent while living costs the country over they declared had not declined more than 3 per cent.

The Small trial has been going on for many weeks and thousands of pages of documentary evidence have been introduced. The chances are that the men on that jury are already so weary and befuddled over the hearing, that the evidence introduced will have a little to do with any finding they may make when the case is given into their hands a few weeks hence.

Here is a sample of the interest and value of many statistics: Records have recently been published to show the great falling off in the number of fatalities in mines of the United States since April 1. Of course this is a very surprising bit of information since all of the union mines of the country have been closed down since the date mentioned.

It is estimated that changes contemplated by the city plan commission in Chicago with reference to water street will increase the value of property there by $25,000,000. It is too bad that in Jacksonville and some other down state cities that property owners abutting contemplated improvements cannot be made to feel that the increase in the value of their holdings will readily offset the cost of the proposed betterment.

There has been some little criticism of the city council's proposal to sell water to the village of South Jacksonville. What criticism there is seems to be based on the idea that since the people of the village do not have nearly as heavy taxes as those resident in Jacksonville that they should not expect to have city water, fire protection and other things that taxation makes possible.

However, a reading of the proposed agreement shows that water is to be furnished South Jacksonville as long as the city has a supply in excess of its own needs. Alderman Chapin summed up the council's view when he said that with Jacksonville having water to sell and South Jacksonville being a customer that relationship between the two is very similar to that which would result if a South Jacksonville resident wanted to buy something from the stock of a Jacksonville merchant.

SALUTE THE FLAG!!!
Some of the ex-service men in the parade yesterday could not take note of the fact that Jacksonville people are very careless about saluting the flag. The men who stood with uncovered heads as the flag passed in parade yesterday were very few indeed. The service men feel that this is just a matter of neglect and not of intentional disloyalty, but they naturally hope that there will be improvement.

Before many weeks there will be a ceremonial in connection with the hospital for ex-service men at the Jacksonville State Hospital with American Legion representatives present from all parts of the state. A parade will be a feature of that event and the local legion members are planning a campaign prior to that time to impress upon the people the proper way to salute the flag.

THE MAGNITUDE OF UTILITIES.

Notwithstanding the fact that the utilities enter into our lives at every turn, hardly one person in ten fully comprehends the magnitude of our American utilities and how hopeless our lives would be without them. Approximately 1,500,000 private citizens in this country have all or a part of their savings invested in the securities of electric light and power companies. The insurance companies have upward of $350,000,000 invested in these same securities, and this huge sum represents indirectly the savings of a great army of human citizens whose hard-earned dollars represent the fruits of years of toil. Furthermore, 27,000,000 depositors in 29,000 American banks, have direct interest in the utilities of the United States because of the fact that these banks have invested nearly $2,000,000,000 in utilities securities.

JUSTIFIABLE PREJUDICE.

The warning that Mr. Lloyd George sounded in his final address to the Genoa conference had a special application to the Russian delegates, but some of his remarks would be equally significant if addressed by a member of our own government to the nations that owe us money.

"The first prejudice we have in Western Europe is this," said the British premier, "that if you sell goods to a man you expect to get paid for them. The second is that if you lend money to a man and he promises to repay you, you expect that he will repay you. The third is this, that if you go to a man who has already lent you money and say, 'Will you lend me more?' he will say to you, 'Do you propose to repay me what I gave you?' and if you say 'No, it is a matter of principle with me not to repay,' there is the most extraordinary prejudice in the western mind against lending any more money to that person."

Some of the countries heavily indebted to the United States have indicated little inclination to repay, while at the same time dropping broad hints that they would like even further credits from this country. Americans have a great prejudice against loaning money under such circumstances.

MEMORIAL DAY AT SCHOOL OF DEAF

A memorial day program of an impressive kind was carried out at the chapel of the State School for the Deaf Tuesday morning. The program was as follows:

Invocation—Mr. George. Remarks, The Meaning of Decoration Day—Mr. Snyder. The Star Spangled Banner—Seniors and Chorus. The Civil Mexican and Spanish Wars—Col. O. C. Smith.

Prayer—Mr. Putnam. A ceremonial especially appropriate to the day took place on the campus in front of the main building at 6:30 o'clock last evening. The military company of the school lowered the flag while all of the students stood at attention. It was a military-patriotic scene of a very impressive kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Onken, John Onken, Miss Amy Onken and Miss Nettie Nash were all listed among callers in Jacksonville yesterday from Chapin.

More than 500 pearls, as well as 146 colored jewels and 11 diamonds, adorn the State tiara worn by the Pope.

IMPRESSIVE PARADE ON DECORATION DAY

Ex-Soldiers and Civilians Joined in Making Pageant a Success—School for Deaf Made Large Contribution.

Jacksonville's Decoration Day parade was a great success in every way and was a credit to the city and to the soldiers of Our Country, living and dead, in whose honor it was held. The parade formed on West State street at the churches on the four corners and proceeded thru the square to the Centenary church where impressive memorial services were held. At the close of these services the main part of the parade went on to the Jacksonville cemetery where the graves of America's fallen heroes were decorated.

Colonel O. C. Smith of the School for the Deaf was the marshal of the day and he had as mounted aides Frank Maddox, Louis Cain, Mervin Ator and Frank Imhoff, who acted as vice marshals. The general order of march and personnel of the parade follows.

Officials of the city police force headed the parade and were followed by the marshal of the day and his aides. Members of the Illinois College band in uniform, marched and played martial airs as the parade moved thru the streets.

Twenty-five veterans of the Civil War marched in the parade representing the Matt Starr Post G. A. R. Captain Kirby was the flag bearer and led the veterans.

The G. A. R. men were followed by the Woman's Relief Corps and next in the line of march came the local bowitzer company with Captain Wesley James in command. The men were in uniform and seven ammunition wagons and howitzer and machine gun carriers were in the line.

The men of the American Legion with Commander Elmer Henderson in charge, made an impressive sight, dressed in their parade uniforms and carrying the colors and the banner of the Legion. The Veterans of the Spanish-American War were next in the line of march.

The city fire department was next in the parade and the men rode on the fire and ladder trucks that had been gayly decorated for the occasion with the national colors. Members of the city council followed the fire department.

The delegation from the School for the Deaf was large and formed an important part of the parade. First came the "spirit of 1776," the grandfather, son and grandson, followed by a representation of the personnel of the present army—presented by forty-eight deaf cadets, three officers, one marine, one sailor and one soldier in overseas uniforms. Then came a tableaux to show the effects of the war, the Salvation Army with a mother and her children, ragged and hungry looking, followed closely by 32 girl scouts. Finally, came a float attractively decorated in white and green and seated under a canopy was a young lady, garbed in flowing white robes, with two children standing at her side. In one hand she held the globe and in the other a white dove, forming a beautiful representation of "World Peace." Back of the float marched a number of little girls all dressed in white and carrying baskets full of blue flowers. The thought of the pageantry was to show something of the happenings from the days of 1776 up to the recent peace conference.

Harry Walker, Scoutmaster of the local Boy Scouts, led the Jacksonville Boy Scouts who were in uniform and carried flags. The delegation from the Jacksonville State Hospital was headed by a number of carloads of veterans of the Spanish-American and Civil Wars. The band from the State Hospital followed and fifty-five ex-service men from the Federal Vocational Training Center at the hospital were the last unit in the line of march.

OLD JACKSONVILLE THE O. M. LONG'S
(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

The burial in Diamond Grove cemetery, May 26th, inst., of Mrs. Louisa Long Crooker, was a reminder of the Dr. Long family, long and well known here.

Before coming here, Dr. Owen M. Long, resided at Mercedosa, this county, and was a leading citizen there. He must have come here about 1840, possibly earlier.

A very great event occurred at Mercedosa in 1837, in the breaking of ground for the Northern Cross railroad, the first iron trail west of Pennsylvania and north of the Ohio river. This was the beginning of the wonderful railway system of the West and Northwest.

Our local historian states: "Ground was first broken at Mercedosa in 1837, with great ceremony and in the presence of a vast concourse of citizens. Speeches were made by Mr. J. E. Waldo and Hon. O. M. Long. Mr. Daniel Waldo was selected to rig the first shovel full of dirt, which he did amidst the shouts of the multitude."

This "vast concourse" and "multitude" may have numbered one thousand persons. But, whatever its size the object of the gathering and what came therefrom has been of immense importance to millions of people, and was one of the most important circumstances of the settling of the great Far West.

Dr. Long is noted as one of the physicians here in 1847. He was referred to again in print in 1850. He was one of the first Board of Trustees of our (then) only Hospital for the Insane, along with such men as Judge Samuel D. Lockwood, Hon. Joseph Morton, Dr. Nathaniel English, W. W. Happy, Col. John J. Hardin, Col. James Dunlap and others.

Dr. Long occupied a handsome, large house on East Court street, here, in 1857, earlier and later. It was presided over by his wife, a bright and handsome woman, who enjoyed society, and in that line was a "lion hunter." So it is not surprising that, in 1859, when Mr. Lincoln lectured here, she gave a "tea-party" to the distinguished guest, which was attended by some of the more prominent ladies and gentlemen of the town.

It is easy to guess from this that Dr. Long was a strong and prominent member of the Republican party.

An Army Surgeon.
About 1860 Miss Mary, daughter of the Doctor and Mrs. Long, and one of the beauties of her time, became the wife of Charles J. Dunlap, son of Col. James Dunlap. That year, 1860, another daughter, Miss Louisa, was graduated from Jacksonville Female Academy, with Misses M. Louisa Warren and Julia D. Jones, afterwards Mrs. Thomas Booth, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. James Robins, of Quincy, Ill., respectively.

The marriage with Mr. Dunlap perhaps threw the Dunlaps and Longs closer together, so that when the War for the Union came on, Dr. Long was selected by Gen. John A. McClelland—twice son-in-law of Col. Dunlap—as Brigade Surgeon. He was at Vicksburg among other places of service in those days which tried men's bodies as well as their souls.

His acquaintance with President Lincoln, General Yates and Gen. Grant probably helped after the War to the Doctor's being made.

Consul to Panama.
A position which he held for many years. While Consul he had as his vice-consul a young man of parts, named Crooker, who served for twelve years. He it was who became the husband of Dr. Long's eldest daughter, Miss Louisa. Later on Mr. Crooker was appointed as Consul to Brussels, one of the most highly esteemed diplomatic positions in the gift of our government. Mr. Crooker, however passed away, just before he was to enter upon his duties in Belgium. Mrs. Crooker, afterwards lived in Boston, Kansas City, and Chicago, and she it was that was laid away in Diamond Grove, last week.

A Kindly Act.
Dr. Long became the family physician of the Joshua Moore's, upon the latter coming to Jacksonville to live, in 1857. One day in the summer of 1857, after a professional call, the doctor asked the little boy of the Moore house if he would not like to ride up on the "institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb," of which Dr. Long was medical guardian. It is needless to say the invitation was quickly accepted. While up there the Doctor called the boy's attention to the grounds of the School, not then very well taken care of, and said they would be beautiful when properly improved. The boy said nothing, but that it was a far sight into the future. Today the prediction is verified and our great state can well be proud of this provision for one class of its charges.

After the War
Mrs. Long, and some others made their home here, in the house latterly occupied by Robert Mackin Hockenbuhl, on West State street. The Doctor was then at his Isthmian post of duty.

In the family at this time was a daughter, Lizzie very much younger than the others of the family. She married Mr. Chester Crandall, vice president of an Electrical Company, in Chicago.

The Crandalls had a daughter, Elizabeth, who became the wife of Charles, son of Henry K. Chapin, of Chicago. Mr. Henry

WILL MAKE REPORT ON CHURCH CAMPAIGN

POSTON. — (By Associated Press.)—The extent of the success of the movement to convert the 60,000,000 North Americans listed as without church affiliations will be the subject of a report at the 97th annual meeting here of the American Unitarian Association and allied bodies during the 1922 Unitarian Anniversary Week, May 21-26. The joint-church campaign, plans of which were made at the meeting in Detroit last year, was concluded at Easter.

With sixteen societies taking part in the meetings and half a hundred speakers from twenty-four cities in this country, from Canada, Wales and Holland addressing the sessions, Anniversary Week will make Boston the Mecca of Unitarians in this country and Canada. The speakers will include: Dr. William L. Sullivan, who has left All Souls' the largest Unitarian church in New York City, to become the first missionary of the Unitarian Laymen's League of the United States and Canada; Rev. Priestly Phillips of Porthcawl, Wales; Rev. W. Noordhoff of Leyden, Holland; Dr. Samuel F. Cole, president of Wheaton College; Dr. Samuel McChord Crothers of Cambridge; Rev. Sydney B. Snow of Montreal and Rev. Caleb S. C. Dutton and Carl B. Wetherell of San Francisco, Cal.

"Drinking Among College Students," "Prohibition Results" and "Law Enforcement" will be the subjects of reports of the session for the Unitarian Temperance Society on Monday. The American Unitarian Association meetings begin Tuesday. Reports on church membership increases, international relations, the appointment of a unit to visit Transylvania this summer and the election of officers, will occupy the major part of the day. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot, president of the Association, will deliver his annual address.

The Womens Alliance will be in session all day Wednesday. Communion service in King's Chapel will usher in the work of the following day, the session of the Unitarian Sunday School Society in religious education, the 18th annual meeting of the Unitarian Historical Society, the Unitarian Post Office Mission and the Cheerful Letter Exchange for Suttins.

What the young people of the denomination are doing will be set forth at the closing session Friday, in the 26th, annual meeting of the Young People's Religious Union.

BIBLICAL TITHE SOURCE OF REVENUE

TIRANA, Albania.—The Biblical tithe is the chief source of Albanian revenue and has constituted until the present time a "single tax" policy. A new fiscal policy is being introduced and prominent among the many items proposed for taxation are beds, for in this primitive country a bed is regarded as a luxury.

The origin here of the tithe can be traced to the Turks, who for centuries have collected it from the people of Albania. It being a simple method of levying and a circumstance to which all the inhabitants have become accustomed, it is adopted by the new independent government as a means of revenue. The new government, however, has not found it a very productive kind of tax because of the ability with which the taxpayers are able to conceal their incomes. So skillful are the inhabitants in evading a large share of the tithe, that new methods of taxation are being put into effect.

"The tithe is still our chief source of revenue," said Kol Thaci, Albanian Minister of Finance, to the correspondent of The Associated Press. "We depend upon it for the current expenses of the government but we find that it does not render sufficient return to let our taxing stop there. We are already planning a new scheme of taxation. It is proposed to place a tax on beds, for to us the bed is not an absolute necessity. Our people have been used for centuries to sleeping on the floor and continue to do so to this day. Today we see that beds are being introduced by those who can afford them, so we are proposing to place a tax on these beds as an article of luxury."

HI Y. CAMP NEWS
When we assembled at the "Y" offices, we thot for a minute that some of us would have to take the train as there were only four cars there. However, we packed in the cars and got here with the exception of a little engine trouble in Sam Osborne's Ford and Mr. Spoon's car getting stuck.
The weather is fine in the day time but at nights some of us wish we had brought more blankets. We hired some boats from Mr. Barnett, five of them, just before Sunday school, Sargeant-at-Arms, Souza administered the slapperetis to Hopper, Gutekunst, Corbridge, Moy, Osborne and Danskin and then received it himself. Some of the boys were out in a boat and the men who were pulling a net, which was stretched across the bay gave them a gar which was four feet long.
One of the boys brought his radio set with him and we get the time from Annapolis, Md., at 11 A. M., Bulbos, Canal Zone at 12 noon. We also get music and speeches.
The water is fine over here in the afternoon and several of the boys took advantage of this privilege and "went swimmin'." We are much favored by a band consisting of Johnson, Corbridge, Bray, Gutekunst, Deatherage, Souza and Jackson playing "The Wabash Blues."

CATTLE PROSPECTS THEME OF ADDRESS

John T. Alexander Veteran Livestock Commission Man Takes Hopeful View of Feeder's Prospects.

The veteran cattleman John T. Alexander recently addressed a group of students of livestock affairs on "The Summer and Fall Cattle Trade." Mr. Alexander takes a hopeful view of the situation by comparison with that of a year ago, when liquidation was on. While he does not look for any spectacular changes he believes that conditions and history both afford reasons for thinking that the cattle feeder who uses average judgment does not face loss or failure in the coming months.

"At this season interest naturally enters in the summer and fall cattle market. While some philosopher has said that it is the port of wisdom to stick to history rather than venture into the realm of prophecy one statement can be made without fear of successful contradiction. It is that we are assured of a more stable market than a year ago when the industry was in the throes of liquidation, values were headed down hill and the best judgment of the trade went wrong. So far as history is concerned recent market happenings are too fresh in the public mind to warrant tedious repetition.

"Briefly practically all the cattle laid in last fall and during the mid winter months showed a reasonable profit. In fact results were actually better than most of us anticipated. But cattle laid in during the past 40 to 50 days have been acquired at prices that look steep when compared with current fat cattle values, so that feeders have taken a long chance on getting a profitable investment unless a higher summer and fall beef market develops.

Employment Conditions Better
"However, I am inclined to the opinion that this money is safe and that is the view taken by most people in the trade. Liquidation has undoubtedly run its course and the industrial situation literally demoralized a year ago is improved right along. Employment of labor is the most reliable barometer of the fat cattle industry and the most encouraging and gratifying development in the industrial sphere recently has been the dispersal of the army of unemployed all over the country. Outside the coal strike area anybody willing to work can get a job. A nation wide building campaign is well under way, railroads are putting thousands of men at work, the steel centers are humming with renewed activity and road building is being resumed. Packing town is the mecca of the unemployed and the packers are actually looking for men whereas a few weeks back they were besieged by applicants. The working people do not buy beef when they are idle, but as the pay roll swells consumption will revive. We have been through 18 months of serious industrial depression and all the handwriting on the wall warrants that improvement is under way.

Cheaper Cuts in Demand
"You have probably noticed that while beef consumption has recently been at the lowest ebb in twenty years that of pork in its various forms, especially fresh, has been well maintained. This means that the industrial element has been buying the more economical and consequently cheaper meat. Look up trade history and you will find that this has always been the case under similar conditions. Where they have money the artisans and laborers of the country will buy beef and there is every reason to believe that this purchasing capacity is being rapidly re-established.

"So far no signs of beef shortage has developed. During the first four months of this year the receipts at all the markets of the United States aggregated 6,136,584 head or 4.1 per cent. more than during the corresponding period of 1921, but slaughter decreased slightly and average weights were lighter so that there was a material reduction in beef tonnage, especially when the fact is taken into consideration that the stock cattle movement for the same period increased 932,583 head or 17.6 per cent on the same comparison basis, this increase demonstrating that somebody has confidence in the future of the industry and that cattle purchase money is more abundant than a year ago.

Fewer Cattle
"At this time in 1921, the entire corn belt was full of heavy cattle, laid in at high prices and carried along to nurse the market, the process of liquidating them keeping the trade on a ragged edge all summer. Repetition of this is impossible as the same crop of beef does not exist. I am prophesying beef shortage but it does appear to be a reasonable assumption that with a rising tide of industrial activity and less beef in the preparation stage, conditions will improve. The western cattle industry is now making an effort to recuperate, consequently less range beef will be gathered than last year, a period when the cattle man was under the necessity of paying up regardless of how he got the money and in that extremity he had no alternative in a majority of cases, but sacrifice young cattle and breeding herds. While it may not be an opportune time for expansion my opinion is that the cattle business has taken a turn for the better, that beef production no longer exceeds current consumption and that we may look for better things."

Indigestion Unchecked Leads to Poisoning!

Fermentation of Food in Digestive Organs Cause of Trouble

If you suffer from indigestion it is a sure sign that your system is being slowly poisoned by the fermentation in the intestines. This condition produces heartburn, choking sensations in the chest, a feeling of heaviness or drowsiness, irritability, discouragement and despondency.

Mr. M. J. Christopher, 5724 Keyser street, Germantown, Pa., long a sufferer from indigestion, writes:

"Before using Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines, I felt so badly that I did not care whether I lived or died. I suffered from indigestion and my stomach would be so upset that even a piece of bread and a cup of coffee would give me great pain. Since taking Dr. A. W. Chase's K-L Pills I can eat almost anything without feeling any after-effects. The sore, aching feeling which I used to have in the lower part of my back is gone and I feel so ambitious to do many things which I could not do before."

You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on each box. This trade mark is your protection against imitations and substitutes. —Advertisement.

HIGH HONOR PAID TO THE HEROIC DEAD

Program of Decoration Day Observance Was Impressive—Hundreds Joined in Services at Church and Cemeteries

Decoration Day was fittingly observed in Jacksonville this year. During the morning old soldiers accompanied by many civilians visited Calvary and Diamond Grove cemeteries to decorate graves and carry out impressive programs.

The parade in the early afternoon had been carefully planned and the service at Centenary church gave further emphasis to the meaning of the day. The observance concluded with the march to Jacksonville cemetery and the program there.

Morning Exercises

Decorations Day dawned clear and bright, ideal for the occasion which became national and of so great importance and solemnity. We cannot do too much to honor the memory of the men who fought the battles of their country and preserved for future generations the glorious heritage of a free land.

In addition of the ritual of the World War Veterans was also very welcome and timely and suitable for the occasion.

At an early hour flowers began to arrive at the designated places and the good ladies of the Relief Corps were on hand to make them into bouquets for the decoration of each of the nearly four hundred graves in the various cemeteries.

In due season the procession started for Calvary and Diamond Grove cemeteries and there in each place the ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic and the American Legion were carried out in the presence of veterans of both wars and many others.

Rev. G. E. Stickney, At Calvary cemetery Rev. George E. Stickney spoke substantially as follows:

"When we sing with so much fervor, 'America,' We cannot always think what the cost was of the country we have. We cannot fully comprehend the sacrifices made by the heroes of the Revolution who fought thru remains lie in those far away resting places of the dead are heard today and they bid us 'arise and be true to the duty of every true patriot.'"

Dean Formaz.

At Diamond Grove the rituals of the G. A. R., and American Legion were again carried out and Very Rev. Dean F. F. Formaz spoke as follows:

"Memorial Day is the Holy day of the Republic, the Holy day of gratitude, love and patriotism. It is a day of new birth, for it commemorates our salvation from impending destruction, and the beginning of a more complete development along the highest lines of popular self-government. On Memorial Day the drumbeats sound again and men and women mearching, not to war, but rather to the cemetery, seek the graves over which floats the country's flag, to strew the flowers of a grateful people's love upon the resting place of its heroes.

"You Veterans of the Civil War and Veterans of a later date are the remainder of the brave men who went forth to battle in the day of the nation's danger. Memorial Day honors you, as it honors the dead who with you rose in defense of country to maintain for us and for generations yet unborn, the heritage of the Republic, the right of all men to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"We need days like these to make us realize the spirit of the nation and the sacrifices by which that spirit has been preserved. We need to keep in mind the true ideals of the Republic which are to be found not merely in 'material' progress but in the character of our citizenship and the integrity of our national life. From '61 to the present day our country by leaps and bounds has risen into the mightiness of a nation commanding the respect of the world. Our hope for the continuance of that respect lies in the sterling character of our men and women, who because of their remembrance of such days as this, have faith in God and faith in one another. God has made us a providential people, whose mission is to preserve and perpetuate for mankind, thru our Constitution, the blessings of popular self-government. The blood of our heroes was shed for the sacred cause of man's right to freedom. That blood has welded our American nation into a union of independent, fearless, conscientious men. God grant that this union may ever permeate and cement our national life. May we always stand together for the right of all men under the flag to the fullest civil, political and religious liberty. In such wise that our selfish service shall go to the upbuilding of our national life, that thus we may hand down unstained the inheritance that was won for us in the blood of our veterans."

A squad fired the salute in both places and buglers sounded taps and the graves were decorated by the Boy Scouts.

Afternoon Program.

The services during the afternoon were highly successful thru-out. Soon after one o'clock the grey heads began to assemble on the academy grounds and there were nearly forty of them in line. Under the able direction of Colonel Smith and his assistants the line as advertised in the Journal was formed and moved right on time. It was somewhat noticeable that the Civil War veterans didn't walk with quite the elastic step that characterized their marching in '61, but still they didn't forget their soldierly bearing. Everything moved promptly on time and with military precision, and the exercises at Centenary church began strictly on time.

The church was beautifully decorated in manner suitable for the occasion, and every courtesy was shown the veterans of all the wars and the Relief Corps. The music was of an inspiring nature and all who had a part in the program did admirably.

The oration of Rev. T. W. Smith was a masterly effort and a few brief extracts are given. Men of the Grand Army of the Republic, Veterans of Foreign Wars, members of the American Legion, friends and fellow citizens, in honoring today our departed comrades, should we not remind ourselves of the great principles for which they fought? Not for laurels of fame or dividends in gold, but for eternal truths, for spiritual possessions that are the foundations of civilization.

Pays Tribute to Veterans

Veterans of the Civil war, your ranks are thin and frail today, but your glory gathers new lustre with the circling suns. It is with special affection that I imagine that exciting day in April 1861, when my own father went forth with the 10th Illinois Volunteers and later came back to die from the effects of his service. He sleeps where rests the ashes of ex-Governor Richard Yates, General Ben Grierson, and many others, and I feel it an honor today to bring you my tribute of respect.

Do we all realize that but for their loyalty, sixty years ago, there might be today four or five competing republics instead of one great nation leading the world in the cause of democracy. If a union of all governments shall in God's time he achieved its very foundation and sanction must be the union you saved at awful cost.

Veterans of the Spanish-American war, you opened new era. Under the noble McKinley this nation for the first time became morally responsible for people outside of our continental boundaries. By virtue of your victories we entered the arena of the great Pacific and you opened the gateway to freedom to millions in the chains of ignorance and broke the barriers of our isolation. You declared to the world that this government does care whether freedom is voted up or down among the backward peoples of the earth.

Veterans of the World War, you came fresh from the most appalling struggle nations of the earth ever saw. It was to curb seven war-mad monarchies and to make this world safe for non-militarized democracy. And for something vastly more which we cannot define. We stand too near the great catastrophe to measure it. Only we know that the stars and stripes which float today over Belleau Woods, and Romaine cemetery, and Surresne, and other sacred spots in France, have always meant freedom. Freedom struggling for some new victory for men. Never has Old Glory gone into battle so anywhere except to liberate the sons of men. True, we have not already attained to perfect freedom but America stands today—Thank God—for a divine discontent for every form of thralldom upon our shores.

There are spots in Europe today that are forever American. The grave of an American boy should mean the haven of a new freedom in Europe—the seed of a new order—the promise of a transforming spirit.

The Cost of Freedom

The cost of establishing freedom in a sin-smitten earth has outstripped the mind of man to compute. To save our union and free a race over three million went into battle, five hundred thousand died and tho it was fifty-seven years ago the bills are not yet paid. The armies of the ancients never equalled ours.

James Bryce said in his last book, "every civilized nation's since its fortunes are inextricably involved on the good or evil fortunes of every other, it is bound for its own sake to take an interest in the well being of the others and help them to avoid disaster.

Over a stricken suffering world today the Great Physician of Peace bends in prayer as he did over Jerusalem and says "Oh, Thou hadst known in which Thy Day, the things which belong to Peace," and back from the pages of the great prophet comes the response, "Oh, that Thou hadst hearkened to my commandments, then had thy peace been as a river and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea."

A long procession moved then to Jacksonville cemetery where the ritual of both armies was carried out and the graves suitably decorated.

Added With Service at Cemetery.

In the ritualistic service at Jacksonville cemetery yesterday afternoon the American Legion was represented by the following: Firing Squad—Claude Dennis, L. P. Hack, Spec Henderson, Glenn E. Skinner, Wilbur D. Ribelin, Frank L. Vannier, Russell McCallister, Albert Yording. Color Guards—C. E. Segner, Carl E. Newport. Color Bearers—Edward Litter, Reaugh Jennings. Buglers—Albert McCarty, Henry Irving.

Notes

The weather was perfect and everything conduced to the success of the day.

The manner in which the world war veterans took hold with the Grand Army to make the day a success and most gratifying. The burden was entirely too much for the old boys as they are at present and the young men did their part nobly.

The soldierly bearing of the World War veterans and the local Howitzer company was very noticeable and elicited many compliments.

The young buglers who sounded taps did their part admirably and added much to the occasion.

The number of Civil War veterans in line was most creditable, and every grayhead who was at all able felt a pride in marching to the church.

Lasting gratitude is due the good people of Centenary church for the use of their building for these occasions.

Capt. W. A. Kirby, color bearer for Matt Star Post, is now nearly 85 years old and is wonderfully vigorous and well preserved and

YEGGMEN BLOW SAFE AT CHAPIN

Moneyless Strong Box Opened With Nitroglycerine—Wasted Explosives for Safe Wasn't Locked.

Safe blowers paid an early morning visit to Chapin yesterday, blew open an "unlocked" safe and drew a blank for their efforts. The safe was in the office of Charles Thomason, wholesale oil dealer.

The yeggmens gained entrance to the building by using a skeleton key. Tools that were secured from the Wabash tool house were used to knock off the combination. A charge of "soup" was then placed in the hole and fired. This charge apparently was too light and another was put in. This charge proved effective. The door of the safe was blown completely off and driven thru a desk cutting the desk in half. A window within a foot of the safe was not broken.

The yeggmens went to considerable work for nothing. Mr. Thomason said yesterday that as the safe contained only insurance papers and order books he never locked it merely closing the door to protect the papers against fire. If the burglars had merely tried the door they could have opened it without the use of nitroglycerine.

Dr. Smith who lives near the Thomason oil station said he heard both shots. The first one was fired at 12:15 A. M. and the second at 12:28 A. M. Dr. Smith said that the first shot sounded like the discharge of a shotgun but that the second was much stronger. Night Watchman Johnson was at the Wabash station at the time of the explosion. He immediately went to the Farmers Elevator and lumber yard, but found nothing.

Mrs. G. A. Allen who lives near the Thomason station said she heard an automobile leave the vicinity shortly after the second explosion. Mr. Thomason knew nothing of the explosion until he visited his place of business about 6 A. M. Mr. Thomason estimates the damage done to the safe and desk at about $150. Not a window in the office was broken.

ROADWAY BEYOND MEREDOSIA IMPROVED

Mayor Berger Says Autosists Can Now Safely Travel That Way—Wabash Bridge Carpenters Taken to Hannibal.

Mayor L. F. Berger, of Meredosia, telephoned last night to Harold Welch, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that car drivers will find the road west of Meredosia now in a passable condition. For several weeks past a deep mudhole there has been a menace to automobilists. Now, however, the road has been repaired and is in passable condition.

Mr. Berger said that Wabash men who have been laying plank on the bridge have been taken to Hannibal to do similar work there. In about ten days' time they are expected to return to Meredosia and then will complete the planking of the bridge as soon as possible.

ROCK ISLAND MEN INSPECT C. P. & ST. L.

Party of Officials Here Tuesday—May Contemplate Purchase of Line.

Officials of the Rock Island Railroad arrived in Jacksonville on a special Tuesday morning over the C. P. & S. L. L. C. Fitch, vice president of the Rock Island was one of that company's men and the party was accompanied by W. C. Hurst, general manager of the C. P. & St. L. The special stopped at the C. B. & Q. and C. P. & St. L. station, which was hurriedly inspected and then the train backed to the C. P. & St. shops.

More than one hour was spent at the shops, the men in the party inspecting the machinery and equipment in every department and examining the trackage and outlying grounds. The inspection was so minute that data was written down in some instances to indicate the type of equipment and the years it had been in service. None of the men in the party would give any information with reference to the purpose of the inspection. However, there has been a well defined rumor for some days past that the Rock Island is accounted a possible purchaser of the C. P. & St. L. road.

There have been so many "sales" of the C. P., in the last ten years that people will not be greatly excited about the matter until they have accurate information about a transfer.

WEDDING CAKE IS FIFTY YEARS OLD

Has Served at Two Weddings and One Wedding Anniversary—Is Said to Still be Good to Eat.

CHICAGO.—There is a wedding cake in Chicago fifty years old, which has done duty at two weddings and one golden wedding anniversary, and although it has never been cut, it is a still soft and appetizing in appearance, according to its present owner.

In 1872 the cake made its first appearance at the wedding of Cyrus H. Sinclair and Miss Mary M. Brockway, at Port Huron, Michigan. Mr. Sinclair was then a soldier on the Great Lakes. In his occupation he sustained the tradition of his family, for his Scottish father had been a sailor and each of his eight brothers were sailors before their death, with their daughter and all their sailor sons gathered about them.

Mr. Sinclair came to Chicago, where he became an influential figure in great Lake circles. At one time he was president of a tugging company. He was inspector of Hulls under Presidents Cleveland and Harrison. For years he was a wrecking master for a well-known English firm of ship underwriters. A few years ago he retired and went with his life tow Corpus Christi, Tex. They returned after losing their property there in the tidal wave to years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair presented their wedding cake in 1901 to their son, L. B. Sinclair of Chicago, a restaurant manager, and his bride, Miss Laura F. Bacon. The old cake was refrigerated for the wedding.

This year the elder Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair celebrated their golden wedding among old friends in Port Huron. Their son and daughter lent them the cake that had graced the wedding breakfast table fifty years earlier. Before he sent it to Port Huron he had it frosted and decorated. A wreath of gold leaves now encircled the cake, while numerals of white and gold record two dates: 1872-1922. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Sinclair see a symbolic significance in the endurance of the wedding cake that has never been cut and has never crumbled, but remains as a memorial to the occasion it was made to celebrate.

AIR SERVICE IS TO BE RESUMED

Hutson Has New Plane Ordered—Talking Again About Service to St. Louis.

Gay Hutson of the Hutson Auto and Aero company of this city, announces that he will begin carrying passengers again next Sunday, taking off from the field used last summer near the hard road, using his old plane until the new one ordered reaches the city, which he expects will be within two weeks.

According to present program program John Robertson of the Robertson Airplane company, will fly a four passenger plane to this city some time next week. It will be recalled that Mr. Robertson was in this city a number of times last year, taking up passengers, and endeavoring to interest business men in the proposition to place Jacksonville on the proposed passenger and parcel route from St. Louis.

The greatest obstacle to an early realization of the company's plans seems to be failure to secure a suitable landing field. This question was taken up by the Automotive Dealers association last year with a view to securing a field, and the Robertson company also has the matter up with the Chamber of Commerce.

JIMMY MURPHY WON INDIANAPOLIS RACE

Lead From Start to Finish—Made Only Three Steps in 500 Miles.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30.—Leading from start to finish, Jimmy Murphy of Los Angeles, Cal., winner of the 1921 French Grand Prix, carved his name deeper in the hall of fame today when he flashed across the wire a winner of the 500 mile automobile race at the Indianapolis speedway before a record breaking crowd of 135,000 spectators.

Murphy clipped more than 16 minutes off of the best previous record for the distance. His time was 5:17:30.79, an average of 84.48 miles an hour against the old record of 5:33:55.51, or 83.84 miles an hour made by Ralph DePalma in 1915. Murphy did something which had never been accomplished before to the knowledge of racing experts in a race of major importance. He shot into the lead at the start and never relinquished it during five hours of thrilling driving.

ST. LOUIS AND DETROIT SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Tigers Won the Morning Game 6 to 5 and the Browns the Second Contest 2 to 1 in 16 Innings—Three Recruits Were Responsible for St. Louis Taking the Overtime Game.

St. Louis, Mo., May 30.—The Browns and Detroit broke even in today's double header, the visitors taking the morning game six to five, while the locals captured the afternoon contest 2 to 1 in 16 innings. It was due to efforts of three recruits that the afternoon contest went to the local team after Shocker had held Detroit to 11 hits and one run in 14 1-3 innings. Durst substituting for Tobin in right field after the latter had been put out of the game together with Shocker in the fifteenth inning singled, was sacrificed to ground and scored the winning run on a single by Collins, who went behind the bat in the tenth inning. Pruet, the Missouri University star retired the five batters who faced him in a row, winning four.

The morning game was a loosely played contest, in which the Browns had to gain the lead over the make shift team presented by Detroit owing to suspensions and illness of players.

Afternoon game:

GIANTS DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL WITH PHILLIES

Philadelphia, May 30.—Hammering five Philadelphia pitchers for 25 hits in the second game and winning 16 to 7, enabled New York today to divide the double holiday bill. Meusel, former Philly player led in the slaughter with two home runs and a double. Lee of the home club also had a pair of circuit clouts.

Parkinson's homer, scoring two men ahead of him in the ninth and tying the score, figured prominently in the morning game which the Phillies won 9 to 8 in the tenth inning.

"There's No Place Like Colorado After All!"

Colorado is as big as all New England, with Indiana added; two-thirds is mountainous—100,000 square miles contain 155 peaks that are more than 13,000 feet high. Within the state there are 500 lakes—large and small; 6,000 miles of running water, born of snow and filled with fish. Mineral springs abound—no one knows how many there are. Every railroad line is an excursion line. Motor highways radiate in all directions.

Obviously, in such a region, vacation possibilities are boundless. Colorado IS America's Grandest Mountain Playground.

Where to go? There are a thousand different places! When to go? Any time! This summer, when you're tucked and seeking escape from the heat and dust, get out under that magnificent cool blue Colorado sky. Get the tang of the mountain air and the spicy smell of pine in your nostrils. You will not have to ask anybody whether it was the right thing to do.

How to go? Oh, just climb aboard one of our luxurious limiteds. Don't think of Colorado as "Way off yonder"—it's right next door and the journey there is intensely interesting.

Vacation costs are down. This year your travel money goes much further. Make 1922 memorable for its perfect vacation. Come in and see me about it.

The Press team was given a bumping by the Merchants in the Twilight league game played at State Hospital diamond Tuesday evening, the final score being 10 to 4.

To make a bad matter worse the score keeper ran away with the score book so that no tabulation could be made of the catastrophe.

MURRAYVILLE WINS FROM INDEES TUESDAY

Take Locals into Camp by Score of 7 to 5—Game was Loosely Played on Part of Locals and Marked by Hard Hitting.

In a game marked by hard hitting and loose playing especially on the part of the locals Murrayville finished on the long end of the score at South Side Park Tuesday afternoon by a score of 7 to 5.

Murrayville hit the ball hard but so did the Indies. It was one of the old time games with both teams scoring thruout and the result was in doubt until the last man was out.

During the afternoon Murrayville got thirteen safe blows, among them a triple and two doubles. The Indies got eight hits, three being doubles and one triple. Both teams mixed their hits with errors which figured quite largely in the scoring.

There was some heavy work also on the part of the locals. The result: Twice Hamm was doubled on fly balls with only one down when he ran madly for third base with the coacher trying his best to flag him.

The Indies took the lead at the start and it looked good for a victory as the opposition was unable to get a run across for several innings. Finally in the fifth Murrayville got two runs over and tied the score. In the sixth they made three and thereafter stayed in the lead until the finish.

TY COBB VIEWS GAMES FROM STAND

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 30.—Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit American, who was suspended today for an altercation with Umpire Wilson in yesterday's game, tonight declined to say whether he would present a formal protest to President Ben Johnson, of the American League regarding the work of this umpire as has been rumored.

Cobb and Heilmann, were put out of the game Monday when they disputed Wilson's decision on a double play.

Cobb witnessed both games from a box behind his players' dugout.

ALL ABOARD FOR THE D. V. BIBLE SCHOOL.

The Daily Vacation Bible School is not an experiment. It has been fully tried and has succeeded. More than two thousand churches and communities have found in this school during the long summer months, an opportunity for supplementing the child's religious instruction and making fruitful use of his leisure time. In every case the pupils have been delighted and asked for more.

A faculty of twenty-five experienced teachers have been selected to conduct the school. The instruction centers about the Bible but the object will be to train the eye, the ear, the mind, the hand and the heart. Two picnics are planned for the members during the course.

No financial obligation will be placed upon the parents. The expenses will be met by the churches interested.

If you have not enrolled your children, secure a blank from the pastor of the nearest church and do so at once.

Be on hand at 9 o'clock, the first day, June 5.

BROOKLYN PRAYER SERVICE.

The subject of the mid-week service will be "Christ and the Home." Come and bring your bible and the children. Let all the praying people come together in the spirit of the Master.

DODGERS TAKE TWO FROM BROOKLYN

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 30.—Brooklyn took both games from Boston, winning the morning contest 9 to 3, and taking the afternoon encounter 8 to 4. The Dodgers clouted Lasing for seven runs in the fourth inning of the morning game. In the afternoon Vance established a season's strikeout record by fanning ten Braves. Bert Griffith had a field day at bat with six hits.

Afternoon game:

Score: R. H. E.
Boston 100 000 002-4 8 2
Brooklyn 200 312 007-8 13 2
Batteries: Watson, Marquard and O'Neill; Vance and Deberry.

CINCINNATI AND PIRATES SPLIT EVEN

Pittsburgh, May 30.—Pittsburgh and Cincinnati divided today's games, the Red taking the morning game 9 to 3 while the Pirates won in the afternoon. Pittsburgh used five pitchers in the first game, but could not check the visitors' hitting. Sensational fielding was a big factor in the Pirate's victory.

Afternoon game:

Score: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 100 000 101-3 12 5
Pittsburgh 320 010 010-7 9 3

Are You an Optimist?

We are all optimists. We lay our plans for this year, the next and so on. We "know" that next year will find us in better circumstances than the present. We are always looking ahead into a rosy-hued future—which few of us will ever see.

A man at 30 has only a 50-50 chance to live to be 65. And out of all who do live to be 65, only one out of about seven will be living on his savings. Every day families are being left destitute because the husband and father merely took it for granted that he would live long enough to amply provide for them.

Life insurance is the ONLY means by which a man in moderate circumstances can protect his family against want in case of his untimely death. You may not "believe" in insurance, or have dozens of reasons for not carrying adequate insurance, but remember, in the end, your family will pay for your belief—not you.

Your Eyes are the Camera of Your Mind

Through them the brain is constantly picturing the scenes your eyes behold. Are the pictures that are being transmitted to your mind clear and distinct? Do they sparkle with the beauty of nature? Or do they appear hazy and indistinct? If this is the case your vision is not 100%. It is a warning that proper steps should be taken to make them right. Delays are dangerous, never beneficial.

Service Rendered by Co-operation

ONE of the most perfect forms of industrial service is that which results from co-operation between manufacturer and consumer.

Recognizing this, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has developed a service bureau headed by lubricating engineers of wide experience whose business it is to co-operate with designers, manufacturers and users of all types of machinery that they may get a maximum of correct lubrication at a minimum of cost.

In developing this service the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) had a two-fold motive—first that Standard Oil products shall render the utmost of service and second that the user shall get full value for the money he spends.

As a result of this service the customer finds it unnecessary to carry on costly experiments. The lubricating specialists of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) will, upon request, study his problems and tell him the exact oils and greases needed to insure correct lubrication of his machinery.

This highly specialized service is rendered without cost. It is one of the underlying principles of this Company that the customer must be given the benefit of our wide experience, that his lubricating costs per year may be as low as possible.

In the individual plants, large and small, which the lubricating engineers of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have served, this principle is well recognized.

Plenty of oil does not necessarily mean good lubrication. Correct lubrication consists in applying the right oil in the right place in the right way.

To enable its patrons to achieve correct lubrication is the business of the lubricating engineers of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

This lubrication service is but one of the many specialized ways in which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) serves industry and hence serves society.

He was married to Miss Essie Dunham, May 24, 1911, with whom he lived happily until his death. The past few years they spent in Meredosia where he was employed by the Central Illinois Public Service Company as local superintendent. HEALTH THE SECRET OF ATTRACTION
Women of today depend a good deal upon the modern modiste and a knowledge of the cosmetic art to make them attractive. Too often there exists beneath it all a suffering woman whose nervous laugh or forced smile covers a pang of agony caused by some feminine ill. To such a woman Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring health and happy relief from her suffering, that will make her far more attractive than costly gowns and cosmetics.

For nearly fifty years American women have relied upon their root and herb medicine to relieve their ailments. Advt.

STRENUOUS DAY.
Sunday, May 22, Rev. E. L. Pletcher preached three times, attended two quarterly conferences and administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper twice and looked in on two Sunday Schools without taking any part. Having much to do the following day he arose at four and rode forty miles home to breakfast and went to work again. And yet some people say a preacher has an easy time. Surely not a district superintendent.

VISITED I. W. C.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert Ricketts of Chicago, motored to Jacksonville on Monday and visited at Illinois Woman's College. Mrs. Ricketts is a graduate of the college, having taken a degree from the School of Expression a number of years ago.

Lathrop Ward and Homer Ranson were business visitors in Waverly the early part of the week.

The pamphlet has 63 pages, handsomely illustrated and full of good things, addresses, poetry and general tributes to the brave men who fought to save our country from the heel of the tyrant Hun.
